

Health Insurance Cost Analysis

Average Insurance Charges by Smoking Status

Average Charges by Region

smoker

- ☐ no
- ☐ yes

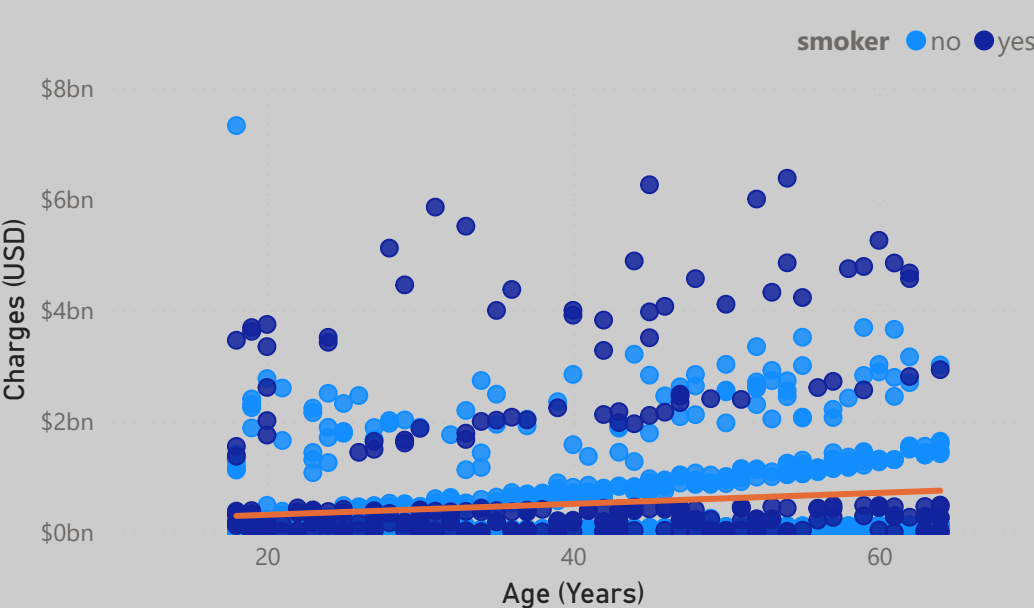

sex

- ☐ female
- ☐ male

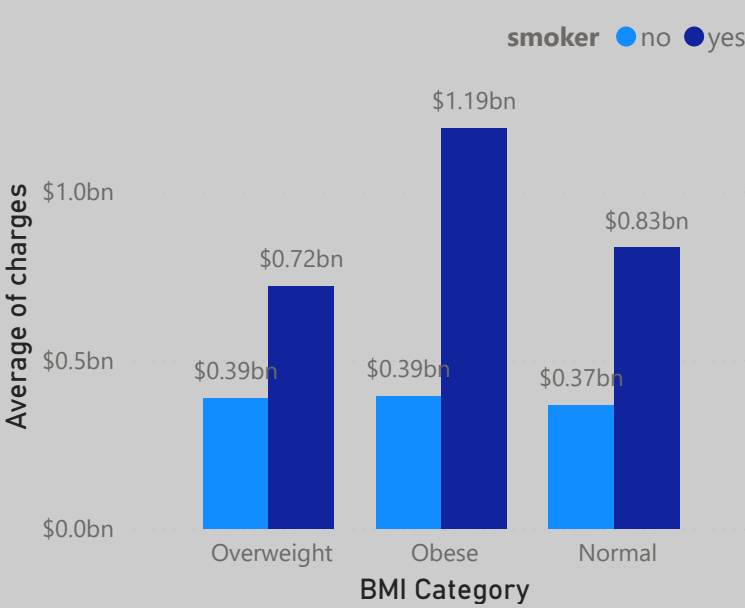

region

- ☐ northeast
- ☐ northwest
- ☐ southeast
- ☐ southwest

Insurance Charges with Age

Average Charges by BMI Category

Smoking status is the strongest driver of higher insurance charges.

Charges generally increase with age.

Higher BMI is associated with higher charges, particularly among smokers.

Regional differences are present but smaller than lifestyle effects.